Bark and Bid

— A Charity Auction —

*Teaching inmates marketable skills
Giving homeless dogs a second chance
Helping people with disabilities*

Dear Friend of the Prison Pet Partnership:

The Prison Pet Partnership (PPP) will hold its annual Bark and Bid Charity Auction on May 19th 2012, at The Tacoma Convention Center in Tacoma. We are asking businesses and individuals to support PPP by donating items for the auction.

All proceeds from Bark and Bid will go to support the PPP, a nonprofit organization that operates within the Washington Corrections Center for Women. Our mission statement says it all:

Prison Pet Partnership enriches the lives of homeless dogs, inmates and the community through the human-animal bond.

We do this by rescuing homeless animals and training them to be service animals for those with disabilities, providing therapy dogs to nursing homes or individuals, taking dogs to the Boys and Girls club for reading time, and placing well-trained pets into loving adoptive homes. We operate a boarding and grooming facility to provide vocational training to women inmates along with teaching life skills in order to succeed once released. For more information about our program please check our website at www.prisonpetpartnership.org

Your donation will help to support this “win-win” program. In return, along with the knowledge that you’ve helped to make a difference in the lives of someone with a special need while offering a second chance to inmates and to rescued dogs, your support of this event creates goodwill in the community. We thank you for your consideration. PPP is a 501-c-3 nonprofit organization; contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowable by law (Tax ID # 91-1487894). Please contact us if you have questions or need more information about donating an item or about attending the auction.

Sincerely,

The Bark and Bid Committee
